Allan Lee Bulteman

OCT 18, 1938 - MAY 11, 2013

Allen Lee Bulteman, a dedicated and committed husband, father, and grandfather, passed away Saturday, May 11th, 2013 at his home in Rialto, California after an extended and hard-fought battle with cancer.

Allen Bulteman was born on October 18, 1938 in Yale, Oklahoma, to parents Guy, a veteran of World War II, and Mary-May Agnes Bulteman. After graduating from high school in Wiesbaden, Germany, Allen migrated to Southern California, where he attended Cal State Los Angeles and graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business.

Ultimately, Allen settled in Rialto, California, where he raised his family and worked as a banker for over forty years. His favorite activities included reading, watching sports, and attending the various sporting and performing events in which his children and grandchildren participated. Allen also had a passion for coaching, and was a member of the coaching staff of the Eisenhower High School CIF Division II and State Boy's Basketball championship team in 2009.

Allen is survived by his wife of nearly 44 years, Pamela, his son Derek (Leslie) Bulteman and daughter Dana (Hansel) Alvarez. In addition, he leaves behind a brother James and sisters Candace, Billie, and Jerri. Allen is also survived by his grandchildren Rachel, Jon-Derek, Mazie, and Violet.

Funeral services will be held Thursday, May 16, 2013 at 2:00 p.m.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorial contributions to be made to

VISTA Innovative Hospice Care 1845 Business Center Dr. #120 San Bernardino, CA 92408

Dana, I did not know your dad well, but in the few times I met him I always felt a warmness and kindness about him, just like you. Your smiles are the same and those smiles say "friend". May God be with you and your family in this difficult time. Please find comfort in knowing that you WILL see him again. Love you girl.Veronica

Allen, my friend, I'll miss having all the lunches we had, starting in the mid 1960's and the many car shows also. My deepest sorrow to Pam and all the family. God Bless, love to all. Jim Chenoski Sr.
