I never knew you Summer but I knew you from your sister. Autumn misses the heck out of you and I know you look down on her and you're so very proud of her. She still has her ups and downs but I'll forever check on her for you. I met y'all's grandma and she's the best to. I know you don't know me, but I'll forever keep your sister safe. I did things I never should have on significant days and I wanna apologize to you and to your sister for those things. I hope everything's good up there.

I can't believe your really gone. You were/are my 1st friend when we were both new in middle school. You know, there are an infinite amount of numbers between 1 and 2, there is an even bigger set of infinite numbers between 0 and 2 , or 0 and a billion. Take in mind that some infinities are bigger than others, but Summer I can't thank you enough for our little infinity. Even if it was just a few months that we were together, in those few months you taught me what a true friend is. I love you like a sister. You will always be in my heart and prayers. It's not goodbye...no, its.... see you later. Love , Giselle

What can you say about a beatiful ,beautiful soul? Love was her middle name and it described her prefectly. Some of my most favorite memories are listening to her and emi giggling at night and all of them running through the house just having fun. I'll always love you. Forever your tani
