Lorraine was an active and dedicated member of Messiah Lutheran Church where she made many banners, was active with Lutheran Women's Missionary League, both district and local and was known for always having something for the carolers at Christmas.

Lorraine loved her family and lived to celebrate Christmas with them and that was the highlight of the year for the whole family. We will miss her creative gifts, mounds of food, her special pies for her son-in-law's and her hugs and kisses. She always had smile and loved everyone, but especially her family.
