Cindy and I send our prayers and thoughts to my aunt Abby and my cousins Eric, Richard and David. In the late 60's I went on uncle Nelsons pie route many times taking me to new and interesting places especially at that time in LA. Being a big baseball fan then and still Nelson took me to my first major league game, LA ANGELS at Dodger stadium before the Big A was built. He was always interested in what I was up to in life and I'll miss him dearly.
