Chivis Zepeda lit a candle in honor of Veronica.

My deepest condolences to Otaki Family. There are no enough words of encouragement that can be expressed at this very difficult time. Your mommy was an exceptional and inspirational person to me. I do agree with those who say that you could feel her love through her words and actions when you were with her. I had the privilege of experience that and it will be treasured in my heart. May God give you the comfort and peace in your hearts that you need at this moment. I will continue praying for you guys as family in Christ. God bless you
