Darlene Sepulveda sent a virtual gift in honor of Lucy.

Jean, our dear friend and favorite neighbor! Life won't be the same without you, we spent a lot of time together. I will miss visiting, babysitting and laughing with you. Mike will miss joking with you. You frequently told me that Mike and I becoming your neighbors changed your life for the better and that God brought our destiny's together. You were right, everything happens for a reason and Becky coming to live with you was a blessing for both of us. Becky, gave you the extra care you were starting to need and she became my dear and treasured friend. You were right Jean, it was our destiny. Now, we've come full circle and you are gone but, you left me with the gift of your daughter's friendship and lots of memories and chuckles especially of our trips to your doctor's appointments when we were like a comedy duo with all your equipment and stuff. This is not goodbye, but, see you later alligator! Love, Mike & Darlene Sepulveda

I only knew Lucy for a short period of time, but in that time I learned so much and man could she keep a smile on my face and keep me laughing. She was such a kind-hearted, loving , and sassy gal. I am so sorry for your loss and may she forever live on in our memories.

Rebecca Webb, Daughtet lit a candle in honor of Lucy.

My heart is broken and the tears won't stop coming. I can't believe you're gone. Taking care of you the last 3 years has been a labor of love. The things that drove me crazy, I would give anything to do again. Just one more cup of tea, to scratch your back, or to give you a pedicure while you screamed at me for trying to kill you.

"Yes mother, death by pedicure." And we would laugh. You were tired, so rest now mom, in the arms of Jesus. Walk eternally hand in hand with daddy. I love you...forever.

Mom, I still can't believe you're gone. My heart is broken and the tears just don't stop. Taking care of you everyday for the last 3 yrs was a labor of love. Now, I truly miss all the things that made me nuts. I would give anything to make you some tea. I miss you, I love you. You were getting so tired, rest now. In the arms of Jesus Christ. Now you and daddy are back together. Soon, my tears will turn to smiles of memories of my life with you both. Till I see you again...
