Ms. Daisy and Mr. Henry I am saddened to hear about the loss of Jerry. I will always have fond memories of Jerry as the little boy I use to babysit with a big bright smile and warm heart. I will also remember the close friendship of our families. May God's Divine Love comfort you and bring you all strength. Love, Yvonne Deane-Williams

I pray to God, that he lifts the burden from your hearts to have mercy on you and your family, so that you'll find peace in knowing that Jerry is a child of God and he is with our Lord and Savior. When I visited in July, he was looking for the perfect real estate property that had a big kitchen. So that he'd have room to prepare all of his delicious meals. Now he has moved into his mansion in Heaven. I can only imagine that big smile he had on his face as he entered the gates of Heaven. I can still hear him saying "my,my,my hotter than fish grease"! I love you nephew. To my sister "D", and the rest of the family I'm praying for you all! Love Your sister Frances

One of my favorite memories of my brother is a fairly recent memory. When he was a child, Jerome liked cheetahs and dolphins. We would spend hours looking through encyclopedias together, reading about all kinds of animals, but he always insisted that cheetahs and dolphins were the best. Then, a couple of years ago, we took a family vacation to Florida, and we fed the dolphins at Sea World. Jerome could not stop grinning. I asked him, "Best day ever?" He said, "No, more like a dream that came true."
