Bill and I went to Grace Lutheran elementary school in S.B., Cali. In the 6th grade we were playing soccer for a school activity. When he bounced the ball off his head, he said, "Now, that's using your head." He was a big happy guy. Always smiling and cracking jokes. I'm happy he had a good, productive life.-- Coleen Marianne Warner

Words can't express the sadness felt in receiving the news that Bill Neece has left our lives. Bill will leave a huge void in so many people's lives, the most honest, caring fellow I had the pleasure of working with for so many years. Happy trails Bill until we meet again. Tim Houck, c-architects

Our friend, a guy with a twinkle in his eyes and huge love in his heart for his wife, daughters, sons-in-law, & his adorable little granddaughter. He still had plenty of room in that heart for his friends, as well. We love you, Bill Neece, and feel blessed that you were in our lives. We will celebrate your life today with so many friends and family rejoicing over the fact that you will always be a part of us.

All that we love deeply becomes a part of us." Helen Keller
