To my long time friend Pam and family, I am so sorry for your loss. Please accept the deepest condolences of the Dalrymple family, your life time neighbors. I loved your dad and his sunny disposition. He truly reflected the joy of the Lord. What a blessing to have loved him for so long and be the recipients of such a great love. God bless all who loved him and mourn his loss. I am certain the Lord cheered when he came home to see your mom. Much love and blessings. But God.
