I remember how excited his mother was when they adopted Keith. I worked with her and shared her joy. Keith was the glue that kept the family together. His friends from college had the nicest compliments to give about him. We all will miss Keith's humor and intelligence.

Keith, at such a young age you were taken from this world! What a smart and fun loving individual you were. Although I did not know you for very long, I truly enjoyed the banter you and your mom would carry on when you came to help mom either set up our classroom or dismantle it at the conclusion of school 😊 Your mom had the best stories of you as a child and was struck by how smart you were in school, especially attending joint high school and college classes. Know that you were very much loved and we will miss you. Blessings, Mary Welday, et. al., Crestmore Elementary School 🌹
