I was so sorry to read in the Visalia Times Delta of the passing of Leonard. I know he will be greatly missed. Hopefully he did not have a lingering illness before passing. I just want you to know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. The Bible says that the Holy Spirit would be our Comforter in times like these, if we would just let Him. May the LOrd bless you and your families at this time. Ivergene Petty###imported-begin##Ivergene Petty###imported-end##

All of ourloved ones live in our memory and Len will forever be in mine. I have so many golden recollections of happy days in the past. Len and Lou taught me so many wonderful things that I will always hold close in my heart. My love to the "boys", their families, and his brothers and sisters. ###imported-begin##Dorothy "Punkie" Hall Godall###imported-end##

I write to offer my sincere condolences on the passing of your love one. It is at times like this that we need comfort and support whether we are acquainted or not. When the enemy death strikes it may seem unfair that it has the power to take away someone we love. I have found the Bible to be very comforting in this regard. At Revelation 21: 3, 4, our Heavenly Father has promised in the near future that "death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Our Heavenly Father has also promised that there will be a resurrection: "and I have hope toward God, which hope these [men] themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous..." What a grand reunion that will be! You and I have the prospects of seeing our love ones again under the best condition possible, a beautiful Paradise earth; God's original purpose for mankind. All of God's promises will come true, for it is impossible for Our Heavenly Father Jehovah to lie. Please look up the cited scriptures in your personal copy of the Bible. Once again, you have my sincere condolences -John 5:28 & 29, Psalms 37:29, Luke 23:43, Hebrews 6:18. ###imported-begin##Denise###imported-end##
