Vernona Bernice Coca

AUG 1, 1922 - AUG 14, 2006

V Bernice Coca passed away August 14th leaving dear friends in San Bernardino where she was a teacher for 30 years. Among other interests, she wrote delightful poetry and collected antiques. For many years she was an active member of "Questers". She will be interred in the family burial plot near Bogard MO beside her husband Paul who died earlier. She leaves her sister-in-law, Norma Lee Sugg, with whom she kept in close touch through the years. Other long time friends and new friends as well remembered her with holiday cards by the dozens which she delighted in answering. The many nieces and nephews will always remember with fondness their "Aunt B"
