ROSE RAMIREZ PALOMINO

SEP 4, 1927 - JAN 28, 2007

Beloved Rose was born on September 4, 1927. Although she ventured up and down the state, she lived in San Bernardino all her life. In fact her permanent residence was 1048 “L” Street, just about ten blocks north of the house she was born in. Rose will be remembered as a loving mother, grandmother, sister, aunt and friend. The road she traveled was full of ups and downs. Raising eleven children was definitely a challenge. She did, however, try her best to support, nurture and love these children, most often as a single parent. Her kitchen was always open and she enjoyed cooking for her family and friends. Her fresh tortillas were simply wonderful and her award winning menudo would draw crowds. The foods she prepared with love will be sorely missed. Grandma Rose prayed her rosary daily. She attended Our Lady of Guadalupe Church, St. Anne’s Church and many other catholic churches in between. She was busy all the time but when she did relax, she enjoyed reading mystery novels, watching shows such as Perry Mason and going out dancing. She was crazy about her scores of grandchildren and great grandchildren. She enjoyed visiting them and vice a versa. Rose is preceded in death by her son, John and husband Gilbert. She is survived by two brothers, Pete Ramirez (Rialto), Alberto Ramirez (San Bernardino) and two sisters, Lupe Garcia (San Bernardino) and Lucy Gonzalez (San Antonio, Texas). She is also survived by her children, Gilbert Palomino, Jr., (S. B.), Frank Palomino (Grand Terrace), Martin Palomino (San Francisco), David Palomino (S. B.), Edward Palomino (S. B.), Jose Palomino (Rialto), Connie Palomino (San Ramon), Cecilia Lopez (Santa Maria), Rose M. Palomino (S. B.) and Johna Palomino (S. B.). She had 36 grandchildren and 27 great grandchildren. She is also survived by long time companion, Rigoberto Acevedo. Viewing will be held on Wednesday, January 31, 2007 from 5 – 7 p.m. with a Rosary service at 7:00 p.m. both at Bobbitt Memorial Chapel, 1299 E. Highland Ave., San Bernardino, CA. Mass of Resurrection will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Thursday, February 1, 2007 at Our

I can't believe its been a whole year since you passed on. Everything has been up and down in the past year but I think things are improving. Anyways, I miss you very much and though life still isn't the same without you with us, I know that we will all meet again eventually and until then I will always see you in my dreams and you will always be in my heart. Dear Palomino Family, My sincerest condolences to you all. I met Rose through my mother Eva Espinoza. When I first met Rose I knew right away she was a very loving, caring person. With a beautiful smile she would always greet us. A smile that came from her heart. Rose will be missed very much by all who knew her. May our Lord Jesus comfort you, and may God Bless You All.##imported-begin##Armando G. Espinoza##imported-end##

We were Commadres when I was married to Roy Guerrero and lived in CA. When we divorced I moved back home where I remarried to Moises Orona. You baptized one of my daughters. I always thought about you and how things turned out for you? I too am very sick a little better now I had a Bone Marrow Transplant. That should give me a few more years. I will see you real soon I am sure, In Heaven. Love, Your Commadre Honey##imported-begin##Alice (Honey Guerrero) Orona##imported-end##

We know the emptiness you will all have in your hearts from this day forward, but pray you will find comfort in knowing that your Mom has a very special place in Heaven as she was truly one of those "angels among us" during her time here on earth. From what we knew about Rose, there is no doubt she will be watching over, guiding, protecting and loving all of you every single day until you meet again. We send our love and our prayers.Randy, Dodie and family ##imported-begin##Randy & Dodie Cameron##imported-end##
