What a loss for us all to know that we will not have Irilla,s loving kindness, sweet smile, fervent support and faithful friendship within our physical reach. In our years together at Community Church I always appreciated Irilla as a dear friend and a faithful prayer partner. She was dear to the Kingdom work accomplished through our ministry there. I will always fondly remember her hugs wich generally reached about my waist unless I bent down to get the full impact. And I will always have her voice in my mind giving me an encouraging word and a gentle smile. Heaven is blessed to have her. If the place could be improved her citizenship would bring that improvement. All my love to the Kanady family. I know you feel the loss greatly. And my condolences to the Community Church family as well. There is much to be lost in one so dear.###imported-begin##Rev. Bruce Kane###imported-end##
