The world has lost the only man I have ever known who would literally give his life for us. From the moment he set foot in my radio studio 23 years ago, I knew we were instant friends. In my life there have been three men who I can say without reservation I loved and who loved me unconditionally, my dad, my Friend Victor and Mike Gile. And I have NEVER met a man so completely devoted to his family. I will never speak of Mike in the past tense because he will live forever in my heart and spirit. A memory came to me on Sunday while the family was gathered together mourning our tremendous loss. I remembered the time when Mike was trying to point out the arrowhead on the side of the mountain to mom and she just couldn't see it. He kept trying to point out things around it and she couldn't see them or the arrowhead. He finally blurted out, "Can you see the mountain?!" I'm sure mom was there to give Mike a big hug upon his arrival into heaven. I love you.###imported-begin##Sherrie###imported-end##
