

RICHARD GLENN NOLAN

JAN 1, 1949 - JUL 30, 2008

Scan to Visit

Table of Contents

Obituary .....	Page 3
Tribute Wall .....	Page 4

RICHARD GLENN NOLAN

JAN 1, 1949 - JUL 30, 2008

Richard G. Nolan, 59, passed away at his home in San Bernardino, CA on July 30, 2008. A lifelong resident of San Bernardino, Richard will be missed by his family and friends.

Services will be private. Bobbitt Memorial Chapel, 1299 E. Highland Ave. San Bernardino, CA 92404, is handling arrangements.

HE

Helen posted:

I recently learned about Richard's passing even though it was 13 years ago. Richard and I were friends in college which lasted several years after graduation. Unfortunately, time and physical distance led to drifting apart, Richard was a good friend to me. He was very supportive when I was facing personal challenges when I was young. He was always there for me. I also remember his wonderful sense of humor. He could be so funny! Richard was a writer and created some moving and skilled poems. He was a true poet. He came at an important time in my life and I'll always be grateful to have known him. He'll always remain in my heart. Rest easy my friend. Love, Helen

February 13 at 8:34 PM

SA

Sandra August 25 at 8:25 AM

I, too, knew Ric at UCR and shared his passion for writing. We had many conversations about the intricacies of life and writing. He was also friends with my best friend Trina. On a whim, today I decided to try to look him up and was dismayed at his passing... not terribly surprised, but certainly disappointed. Trina preceded him in death in 1979 when she was just 27. I'm 72 now and miss my friends all the more, knowing they're beyond my reach. Ric was a good friend... "I'll miss our conversations"... line from the movie, "The Last Samurai"

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring RICHARD by contributing to a collection of shared memories.

Scan to Visit

