David will be remembered not for how he died, but how he lived. Not for what he gained, but what he gave. He was a Loving Husband, a Great Father, a Special Brother and a Good Friend. Though we were only siblings thru marriage, he was a big brother to me. I wish I had been able to spend more time with him and the family as the years went by. He will be greatly missed by his father, step mother, step sisters, step brother, and numerous step nieces and nephews. May God Bless and hold the family together at this time of great loss.
