My husband and I met Harold a number of years ago while attending an Air Force reunion. We thought "What a remarkable man" and how right we were. As we got to know him more we realized how knowledgeable he was on many subjects and could talk about a multitude of things. I have been attending the reunions for the last six years by myself and found his sense of humor refreshing. Harold, you will be missed by me and also your many friends at the 5th Comm Group. We all thought you were an outstanding man. Rest in peace, Harold and say hello to my husband George and all your other military buddies who were waiting in Heaven for you. Mary Jo

So very sorry for the loss of your father. I will miss my favorite patient, and friend. What a wonderful man, with the best personality I have ever had the pleasure to know. And his great outlook on life lasted for 99 years! Sending prayers your way, Mike. God Bless Sue from Dr. Sloughs office
