Pearle Arlette Ludwig

FEB 23, 1928 - JAN 29, 2022

Pearle Arlette Ludwig, of San Bernardino, California, was born on February 23, 1928 in Boston, Massachusetts, the eldest child of Stanley and Norma Densmore.

Pearle lived in Framingham, Massachusetts at Waveney Farm through elementary and high school. After graduating from college at Framingham State University and receiving her Master of Education, she moved to California to teach in San Bernardino.

Pearle married Glen Ludwig, the love of her life for over 61 years, on November 20, 1960. Over the years she helped Glen with his many business ventures but was always a teacher at heart.

She loved teaching. It was “her happiness.” Pearle taught elementary school at Parkside and Arrowhead until her retirement. Upon retirement, Pearle continued working with students at the Reading Lab of a local school with her dear friend, Olga, and supervised student teachers for California State University. She also was the author of a professional book on teaching, Excellence for Kids, as well as several children’s books. One was titled Safari, inspired after returning from a safari in Kenya, Africa with Glen. Pearle also volunteered at the Humane Society teaching groups of children about wildlife with bears being her favorite topic. She always had a love for animals and numerous pets.

Pearle enjoyed traveling with Glen on their yearly trips to Hawaii, Jackson, Wyoming and Exira, Iowa to celebrate the 4th of July with family. She loved to entertain at her home and welcomed all graciously. Pearle decorated model homes for Glen’s development business in Arizona and enjoyed spending time there with him.

Pearle touched so many lives. She was faith filled and devoted to her family, friends and students. She gave of her time freely, always helping those in need. Pearle always made each of us feel special, seeing the good in everyone. She was loving, generous,

I had the privilege to work closely with Pearle in the Learning Lab at Belvedere. She was a gifted teacher who encouraged students to become actively engaged in learning. Her lessons were artfully designed to meet each need and target skill. Students were excited to share questions and comments with her. She often said, "A raised hand is a beautiful thing!" Pearle found joy in life. She was a wonderful colleague and friend.
