Mrs. Clova June Dyer

MAY 5, 1937 - JUN 6, 2024

Clova June Dyer was born on May 5, 1937, to Jasper and Rita in Santa Paula, California. She was the second of three children; her older sister Beverly and younger brother Jim completed the family. Clova had a fulfilling career as a real estate agent but was first and foremost a dedicated mother to her three kids: Cindy, Chris, and Cory. They were her whole world until her last breath. She also cherished her role as a grandma to Deanna, Ethan, and Ryan, and later as a great-grandma to Isabelle, Amilia, and Namahn. Clova often proudly mentioned that "three" was the family number, 3-3-3-3.

Known for her vivacious personality, Clova always brought a smile to those around her. Aside from being a mother, she was passionate about helping others, whether it was through her work or creating things like baby blankets. Making friends everywhere she went, she held many close to her heart for years, including co-workers and clients.

Whether you knew Clova for fifty years or had just a brief encounter with her, she undoubtedly brightened your life.

The family will hold a vigil for Clova on June 14, 2024, at Bobbitt Memorial in San Bernardino, her home for over 45 years. Instead of flowers, please consider donating to any animal rescue or shelter in Clova's name, as animals were extremely important to her.

Ironically, I opened up to the Bobbitt Memorial Chapel website to research the needs of our recently deceased (6/9) Pastor Alan. Clova was the landlord for our deceased friend Jim Simmons who recommended we call her because I needed a 3 bedroom house, when I obtained custody of my two daughters. She was quick to respond to the particular needs we had at the time (August 1987) and led us to a property which we still reside in today, all "3" of our children have grown up and moved on. Yearly, Clova would send us a Christmas card, except this past year 2023. We would send greetings to her also. Our prayers for her family and friends would be that they would be comforted by the WORD & HIS SPIRIT, Jesus Christ.

I had the pleasure of knowing and working with Clova for many years at Century 21 Lois Lauer Realty. Clova had a true passion for real estate and was always a kind and loving person. As I transitioned from the short sale department, Clova took over for me, and we shared many laughs together about our ongoing files and life in general. I remember how fondly Clova spoke about her family and how proud she was of them all. I will miss her presence around the office. Rest in peace, Clova. Until we meet again, dear friend. With love, Michelle Flowers

I had the good fortune to call Clova my friend for the 20 years that I worked with her at Lois Lauer. She was a person who treated everyone she knew like family, she was the first person to help anyone in need, and she brought warmth and laughter to the office with her every day.
