Thank you to all that attending my Mom's memorial service. She would've been surprised at how many lives that she touched. I will miss her forever and loved her so much. She was a wonderful grandmother and great grandmother. Her time with them was beyond special. We all will miss her accent and her loving ways.

Linda and I became acquainted with Gisela and Manfred Kase through our friends John and Kathy Lorei at Messiah/St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Highland. We enjoyed their company at many church and social events while we were members there. As I recall one of Gisela's talents was engaging with youth of the congregation over crafts. Our condolences to Manfred and the Kase family at her passing. May God's peace which surpasses all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in close communion with our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.
