John Brinck Hague Sr., born June 7, 1934, in Los Angeles, California, the third oldest of eight children, & a longtime San Bernardino resident, went home to be with the Lord at St. Bernardine Medical Center on March 3.

Known throughout the community with great respect as "Mr. Hague," he served as a little league manager at Newmark for nearly 50 years, mentoring & inspiring generations of young players & families.

To a wonderful human being who told me he was lucky to have found love once in his life, and even luckier when he found love twice in his life. He told me this as I was going through my separation. He also told me that I too would find love again... And I Did. I will never forget him. Julie Duran
