CLARK PAUL MOLSTAD

1946-2021

Clark Paul Molstad was born on October 13, 1946 in Rugby, North Dakota. His twin brother, Clay, was born minutes after. Parents, Bert and Arlene Molstad settled down in Fargo, North Dakota, where Bert worked for Great Northern Railroad and Arlene finished college to teach elementary grades.

Attending UND for two years, Clark then joined VISTA (the domestic peace corps) and was sent to San Diego for training, then assigned to a project in South Central Los Angeles, near USC. After his one year term of service, Clark enrolled at Cal State University, Los Angeles, and finished his BA in 1970. Earning his Ph.D. in Sociology at UCLA, Clark took a position as Assistant Professor of Management at California State University, San Bernardino. Clark was promoted and tenured in 1989 and was a Professor of Management until his retirement in 2011.

Clark passed away on June 7, 2021 and is survived by his brother, Clay, a retired internist living in Pensacola, Florida.

“ Clark was married to our mother, Helene, and even after their divorce never missed a birthday or Christmas card in all these years since. I remember sitting at their table sharing robust discussions always punctuated with his wonderful laugh and generous spirit. I'm heart broken that our 3 now adult kids wont get the opportunity for the same. What a wonderful man!

“ I worked with Clark for many years in the CSUSB chapter of the California Faculty Association. His good humor and strong concern for the well-being of others made him a very special union member and activist. It was always a positive experience to be around Clark and spend time with him. He as a good man, a very good man.

“ I worked at Cal State in the Management Department for 20 years with Clark. I'm so sorry to learn of his passing. Always such a nice guy and he and Helena always gave great parties. Again, so sorry. Jill Lewis

“ For the past few years a group of CSUSB colleagues have been lunching weekly with Clark-- first face to face and for the last year and a half through Zoom. It has been such a blessing to us to have had this close connection with Clark. He will be sorely missed.
