“ Dear Rachel, David, and Ruthie and families,

I was thinking about your mom the other day as I found my copy of Thy People Shall Be My People. Your mother was such an encouragement to me at a difficult time in my life. Rachel, you were, as well. I will never forget the godly example both your parents evidenced in their lives, and how much they showed love to me. I named my daughter after her and my best friend: Linda Ruth. I look forward to seeing your mom and dad when it's my turn to leave this world. May the work they did among the Jewish community continue to flourish and bear fruit. I love all of you!
