“ One of my earliest memories of the north end of San Bernardino was meeting the Stoppler family. I always enjoyed talking with Robin. I was pretty shy back then, having recently moved from New Jersey and at that awkward stage (at least for me) starting 7th grade and not having made many friends at that time. But I fondly recall her friendly personality which I will never forget. May God bless her brother John and the Stoppler family as well as the Shaffer family always and especially during this most difficult time. Rest assured that Robin is still with you in spirit and the day will come when you all will be reunited...for ever.

“ To Robin's family:

I was deeply saddened to hear of Robin's death today from a family member. I knew Robin when we were both teens, her brother John, her dad and mom and was also welcomed by them and her. She always had spunk, spirit and a ready smile!

I am so happy to see that she has a loving husband of twenty five yrs, a son who was special in her life, and that she continued with her love of children. You will each be in my and my wife Nancy's prayers.
