“ My Oma. It's your schatzi, I miss you and I love you. I think about you everyday. I think about you with your cats, I think about the amazing food you made - my favorite was always the peas with bowtie noodles. I think about the summer nights where we would play Yahtzee or just sit and have mango iced cream - or go rent a movie at blockbuster and if it scared any of us it would make you laugh. The best part about Oma is if you met her, you'll never forget her. Oma truly is a character. I thought she was hilarious. She told you the truth whether you wanted to hear it or not, but it came from a good place. Omas accent of course was her signature as well as her house shoes you could hear come down the hallway. It's always the simple things we miss about people. I miss going in the car and having Oma slide me a lemon candy. She always had special German candy for her grand children. Oma always cared so much for her grand kids and for her pets. She always made sure everyone was taken care of and showed you true love through her actions. I loved watching Oma make her Hans bird laugh, or favoriting one of her cats and letting it sleep in her room. I'm thankful for the memories I have of Oma and the places she took us, I feel thankful to have even known someone like her in my life. I'll miss you for a lifetime, I love you and miss you so, so much. The only peace we have is that you're waiting for us and that you're with your son, and your father! We love you and cherish you deeply.

“ Dear Joe and Family. Please accept our deepest sympathy on the passing of your Mom. Whilst we didn't know her personally, we felt a close connection through your stories of your Mom and her German heritage. We pray for you all during this sorrowful time that you will find comfort and strength in each other. Derrick, Jacinta and Dillon Jones. Oceanside, California.

“ My memories go back to 1976 and thru to present. We have had many trips together with Flip, Wally and the children throughout Europe and especially good times in Paris, Italy, Spain when we all got drunk and missed the bus to our hotel and had to walk for several miles, and Amsterdam where we found ourselves in the midst of the Red Light district and we had our kids with us. Our friendship has gone on for 45 years and she will surely be missed. Terry Weiss
